

Leading Your Case: Opening Statements and Examination-in-Chief

Friday, December 7, 2018 | 9:00 am - 4:30 pm

Ottawa: Gowling WLG, 160 Elgin St #2000, Ottawa, ON K1P 1C3

The opening statement is the first step in the process of persuasion. The examination-in-chief is the basis upon which trials are won. Attend and learn the techniques used by experienced counsel to control the narrative and deliver powerful opening statements and examinations-in-chief. Register for the morning only and watch a webcast featuring presentations and demonstrations by judges and leading practitioners. Join us for the live afternoon skills workshop in Ottawa to practice and refine your opening statement and examination-in-chief skills in a supportive environment. You will receive individualized feedback from trained faculty. Advance preparation is required for the afternoon skills workshop.

Afternoon workshop registrants can watch the live webcast with other participants of the workshop at the Gowling WLG offices.
